

Dr. Patrick T. Brown

Biographical Sketch

Having received his call into the ministry and accepting it on July 9, 1995, Dr. Patrick T. Brown is the vibrant, vigorous Pastor/ Teacher/Visionary of Mount Olive Baptist Church in Phenix City, Alabama. Dr. Brown is an internationally recognized teacher, preacher and singer.

Renown among educators and Theologians, Dr. Brown is a masterful Homiletics professor and lecturer whose erudite oratorical presence is in high demand across the nation.

A devoted family man, Dr. Brown is married to Mrs. NeCrystal Y. Brown and they are the proud parents of two daughters, Alexandra Rivers and Hasannah Brown, and a special God-daughter, Iyanna Brown. Dr. Brown is a native of Talladega, AL. His parents are the late Minister George W. Brown and Mrs. Lillie Ruth Diamond of Talladega, AL.

Dr. Brown certainly supports both secular and Christian education. He has earned the following degrees: Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Bachelor of Education, Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Education and Counseling, Doctor of Philosophy and Religious Education and a Doctor of Education, Dean Certification from the Sunday School Publishing Board Nashville TN. and a variety of certifications, accreditations and awards. Dr. Brown is a Master Mason of the Prince Hall Legacy Phoenix Lodge #428 Fort Mitchell, Alabama.

Dr. Brown serves as 2nd Vice Moderator of the Mt. Hebron District Association Midway, Alabama. He is President and professor of the International Theological College Extension of New Life College and Seminary of Hillsville, VA and former professor of G.M.O.R. and Cornerstone University. He utilizes his gifts to inform and inspire the Body of Christ. He is truly a dynamic voice for Christ and the disciples of Mount Olive Baptist Church look forward to impacting the Bi-City Area.